If not, let them secure a representative whose record will not disgrace those whom he repre-

JACOB BARKER IN WALL STREET,-About these days we learn that Jacob Barker, one of the oldest bankers and financiers of ancient times in this city, who has been residing in New Orleans for many years, has just made his appearance in Wall street. Jacob Barker is the most venerable patriarch of Wall street brokers and financiers. He settled in Wall street in the year 1793, at the tail of the last century, and during the last war with England was a distinguished man, raising money for the govern-

The name of Jacob Barker, recalled after the absence of years, brings back to our mind many souvenirs of the past. We remember that in the panic of 1825 quite a number of banks, insurance companies and merchants were smashed up, and indictments were instituted against many of the unfortunates. Among those then on trial was Jacob Barker; but the jury never could agree in his case, and we believe he was finally acquitted. During the trial, a judge, who was prejudiced against him, fined him a hundred dollars for some language offensive to one of the witnesses. Jacob, in his characteristic manner, stooped down, wrote a check for the amount, despatched a messenger to the bank, and handed the fine in gold to the beach-remarking, very naively, that he always settled his differences in cash.

On his present visit to Wall street, the vene rable broker, when recalling old memories of the time, when he first dispensed golden favors in that region, must be astonished at the growth and progress of the metropolis. Then it had only thirty-five thousand inhabitants: now it numbers nine hundred thousand-nearly twenty-six times as many.

Award of the Pacific Telegraph Contract-The Case of the Alleged Slave Traders— The Newly Discovered Comet, &c. WASHINGTON, Sept 1.8, 1960. THE CASE OF THE ALLEGED SLAVE TRADERS.

Quite a number of seizures of vessels suspected of being mayers have recently been made by the Federal authorithe mid vessels have brought to the attention of the Se-cretary of the Treasury facts connected with the seizures and are asking him to discharge them, on the ground that the vessels are not slavers, but are engaged in lawful commercial enterprises. The Secretary will not inter-fere unless it can be shown to be a clear case of unlawful Selzure, as he is very bitter against this inequitous slav trade, and is determined if possible to break it up. AWARD OF THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH COSTRACT.

In Cabinet council to-day it was decided to give the contract for building the Telegraph line to the Pacific to the lowest bidders, Messra. Harmon & Clark, of Detroit, who agree to construct the line for twenty five thousand dollars. The Secretary of the Treasury maintains that according to the bill as persed by Congress, he had no other alternative but to award it to the lowest bidder.

A question having been raised, that the sowest blader, der the recent proposals, should be equal to the cost of constructing the Pacific telegraph line, the Cabinet, today, it is said, decined that there was no Executive discretion, as the law Provides that no contract shall be made until the line shall be in actual operation and the Infilment of which be guaranteed, as in the case of bids for mail contracts; also that the lowest offer for the use of such telegraph shall be accepted, under those specified conditions. J. Harmon, of Detroit, as heretofore stated,

HIS RECEPTION AND STREET AT MOCRESCHE. HIS REMARKS ON THE MISSOURI COMPROMISE, ETC.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 18, 1860. Mr. Douglas left Syracuse at seven o'clock this morning At every station on the road the usual demonstrations were made, and at Rochester and Lyons, where large crowds gathered, Mr. Douglas was called firth and made brief addresses, and was received with much en-

At the Rochester depot many numereds of criticus amembled on the arrival of the train, and the pressure was great to catch a sight of Mr. Douglas; but owing to the efficient arrangements of Col. G. T. Amsden the procession was formed without inconvenience, and Mr. Douglas was conducted at once to the Eagle Hotel.

A great number of strangers arrived in the city during the morning, and Douglas clubs from surrounding cities attended in uniforms, accompanied by bands of music. The excitement appears on the increase as Douglas pro-ceeds westward, for the meeting in the afternoon fully equalled that of Syracuse yesterday, while large addi-tions were made to the visiters from the country during

The meeting was held in Washington square, which was denrely packed with people. A scene similar to that at Syracuse occurred through females and boys getting near the platform at an early hour, and being caught in the pressure when the space filled up. Several had to be rescued from the crowd over the platform. be rescued from the crowd over the parties. The Rochester Union puts down the number in the square at 20,000 to 20,000. Judge Donglas' speech presented no new features, except on the subject of the Missouri compromise. He claimed he had always supported and upheld the Missouri compromise, so long as the people the free States were willing to abide by and in 1848 had introduced a bill, which was passed the Senate, extending the line to the Pacific. The House rejected that bill, and he claimed if it had passed it would have settled slavery agitation forever. He charged hat it had been defeated by a union of free soilers Southern fire eaters, who had then combined against the Missouri compromise as they now combine against popu-

He spoke an hour and a half, and the speech was well eceived, much enthusiasm being evinced.

Hon. Joseph Field, ex Mayor, presided over the meeting. To-night the etreets are all excitement with a procession bearing torches, bands of music. &c. Many thousand strangers remain in town, giving the place an appear ance of a general holiday. At the headquarters of the Union men, opposite the Eagle Hotel, a great bell is kept constantly tolling. Bondres blaze on all public thorough-fares, and the demonstration is unrivalled in point of spirit and extent.

An to me Americal Danante Fron Association.—It was announced, tome months since, that a gentleman of Boston had offered to be one of three persons who should donate to the above named worthy association the sum of ten thousand dollars. This offer was made to Mr. John Brougham, one of the trustees of the fund. Mr. B. is now in Europe, and as he has been engaged at the Haymarket theatre, London, will not return to the United States before next year. In the meantime Mr. James H. Caldwell, of New Orleans, has signified his willingness to contribute a third of the sum named above, and Mr. Brougham has sent to Mr. Oxiey, the Treasurer of the Association, the name of the Boston gentleman who made the original proposition. Thus two-thirds of the money are of our millionaires will be glad to make up the munificen trio. The fund, it may be remarked in pessing, is in the best hands, and is administered entirely upon its original principles—i. a., provision for the relief of dramatic artists who may be incapacitated by illness or eld age from the pursuit of their rocation.

The funeral of Don Juan Bello, the Minister from Chile to this country, who died of an authmatic disease on Sun day evening last, at the Clarendon Hotel in this city took place yesterday morning at the church of St. Fran-cis Xavier, West Sixleenth street, near Sixth avenue. Mr. Bello has been for a number of years employed by the government of Chile in important political posts. He had been spending the summer at Glen Cove, Long Island, and at the time of his decease was on Cove, Long Island, and at the time of his decease was on his way to Washington to resume his official duties. He was about thirty-five years of age. The church of St. was about thirty-five years of age. The church of St. Francis Kavier was filled with a large number of our most industrial citizens, together with the whole of the diplomatic corps of this city, who attended to pay the last tribute of respection one who, though so short a time among us, had made many warm and smoore friends. A many derequier was raid by Rev. Father De Swymen, by whom he had been attended during his last illness; after which the unail services for the burnle of the dead, according to the ritual of the Catholiz-church, were performed. The body, after being embalmed, was piaced in a leaden codin, and the whole cookers in a handsome rosewood coline, and conveyed to the receiving want of St. Patrick's cathedral, the following gentlemen acting as pall beavers:

living, at the advanced age of eagily three year, and is cose of the most distinguished men of the Chilean republic.

The following sketch of the life of the deceased may prove interesting—Mr. Bello was born in London, in Joly, 1844, and was consequently a little over thirty six years of age. His father is a Senatur of Chile and Rector of the University of Santiagn, and the only Spanish American member of the Royal Academy of Madrid, and a gestleman reckneed among the very first authorities in Jatin and Spanish literature. Mr. Bello was a member of the House of Depaties at the age of twenty six, and at the same time a professor of history and literature at the Naticeal Institute—a chair won by him after an able and much disputed contrast. He practised as afterwards, and so successfully that in two years be ranked as one of the best lawyers of the country, so as to get, perhaps, overloaded with business. His health began consequently to fail, and he scoepied the position of Secretary to the Chilean Legation at Paris, and the Minister returning soon home he was left in charge of the legation. After two years haborious time spent at that post, he was appointed Charge of Affaires to this country, where he arrived is December of last year. During his residence as Paris he translated and edited a treatise on political economy on commission of his government. He published bestdes, many poetical pieces and literary articles, which attracted considerable attention in Chile and South Amarica.

NIBLO'S GARDES. -- The Cortesi Opera troup a brief season of Italian opera here last night, under the most favorable auspices. The "Traviata" was sung by Madame Cortes!, Signor: Musiani and Amodio to a full and brilliant audience. The opera has been so frequently sung by the artists above named that extended criticism would be superfluous. We may mention, however, as a matter of public interest, that Madame Cortesi has quite recovere d her health, and that she sung and acted the role of Violetta very finely, better, perhaps, than ever before. The audience was quite eathustastic, and the prima donna received the most positive tokens of public appreciation? Musiani did not seem in his bost voice, but will doubtless redeem his position in the "Po liuto," which is to be given on Thursday. To-night Mr. Forrest will apprar, and repeat his very fine per papers that there is a case on trial in the United States ert room before referees, in which F. O. J. Smith is plaintiff, and Samuei F. B. Morse defendant. The referees are the Hon. Judge Sprague, of the Circuit Court; the Hon. Judge Upham, of Concord, N. H., and the Hon. G. S. Hillard, of Boston. On Friday Mr. Smith opened the case; on Salurday G. T. Curtis replied in behalf of Mr. Morse, and to-day, Monday, 17th, Mr. Smith for himself closes the argument. This case, in brief, is a claim set up by Mr. Smith to a portion of the honorary gratuity which it will be remembered was awarded to Prof. Morse by ten of the European Powers convened in Paris in a special Congress at the instance of the Emperor Napoleon, in the year 1858, whose deliberations resulted in this honorary testimonial, honorable alike to the inventor of the telegraph, to the imperial government of France, and to the governments who so warmly acceded to the proposition of the Emperor of the French. Mr. Smith bases his claim on some tech. micalities in the original articles of agreement with Mr. Morse, and his deed by which Mr. Smith came into pos-
